

Maine Farmer.

Augusta, March 7, 1889.

TERMS OF THE MAINE FARMER.

$5.00 IN ADVANCE; OR $5.00 IF NOT PAID WITHIN ONE MONTH OF DATE OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Any person who has a bill or paper to be credited on the yellow slips attached to their paper. The printed date, in connection with the subscriber's name, will be printed on the yellow slip, and will constitute, in all cases, a valid receipt for money remitted by him.

Any person desiring to change his post office address, or to discontinue his paper, must communicate to us the name of the office to which it is desired to change, and the date when we should be unable to supply with his requests.

Postmaster to all subscribers.

Advertiser's Notices.

Mr. J. C. Ward, of Boston, can supply, at his address, to readers for money and credit.

Rev. Rufus Day, of Houston, who is eighty-two years of age, writes that the Farmer has made him many visits since 1835.

The legislature cannot possibly get away this week, but we anticipate a final adjournment will be reached on Friday of next week.

We know all our readers will be glad to receive "The Farmer" in our Woman's department, whose good words will lead kindly encouragement.

The Cumberland County Agricultural Society "has taken the bull by the horns," and voted to raise money to pay off all the bills in sum. An exhibition building on the grounds at Gorham will be built the coming summer.

The people of the State ought to be thankful that the "funs and feathers" bill, amounting $12,000 to send the militia to the "100th Motor" in the war of the acquisition of Washington at New York, has been indefinitely postponed in both branches of the legislature.

Squires' strictly pure little rendered leaf is put up expressly for the use of men, and warranted strictly pure. It will be found to come within the provisions of the law just passed by the legislature to protect the people from the miserable adulterations that are thrust upon the market.

The correct American flag, used at inauguration, Monday, contained forty-two stars. In 1841, when William Henry Franklin rode down the avenue in his white charger, the flag had but twenty-six stars. Very little is a great and growing country.

The valuable contribution from our esteemed correspondent from Orono, on "Variety of Foodstuffs," deserves more than a single reading. A careful study of this, and other letters, will be valuable to all our readers. Mr. Hubbard is a practical writer and an educated young man.

On account of the warm, sunny weather, followed by a heavy rain, no doubt the ice harvest at Kennebunk has closed. The river has been a Monday morning for three weeks, and the ice which has been received has been new. We have no doubt dealers will reap a rich harvest this year, as, say what they will, there is a shrimps in the amount of ice put up farther south.

Henry Bither and Milton Scott of Maitland, with whom undoubtedly lies the blame of the recent disaster at Kingman, have been discharged by the Maine Central Company. Conductor Frank Hammond, who seems not to have been at fault, remains with the company, and is allowed to do so. If Bither or Scott were guilty of this blunder, worse than a crime, they should have been tried and convicted of manslaughter.

On earth President and Mrs. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. McKey, the Belds, Russell and his wife, and all their maids are going to live in the White House one day.

The weather is bad, and the crops are not good.

The Cleveland keeps a room for visiting friends and had no other room to spare. The general is going to be liberal with the money he has.
